AN OILY SURPRISE?

We found something ‘new’! It is oily, comes from a statuesque tall thin tree. It is extracted from the seed pod. What is it? COCONUT OIL!

“Not new” you say, yes it is! Why? We have been testing coconut oil for many, many years and have tested virtually every major name brand. It has constantly tested from slightly poor to horrendously bad. We have not been recommending coconut oil for our clients. BUT, things have changed.

A special USDA Certified Organic (Centrifuge Extracted) 100% Extra Virgin Coconut Oil from SOLUTIONS 4 YOU®. It has shown to be of outstandingly high quality. Never have we seen this before...it is something ‘new’ to us.

Below are some statistical comparisons of three brands of coconut oil. Two of the brands are from high caliber, reliable, companies that advertise and usually deliver High Quality products. The third company is this little known company called SOLUTIONS 4 YOU®.

In the statistics below, please note the positive and negative response to such areas as the nerves, the heart, the gallbladder and the skin. “O” is neutral, “-” means harmful and “+” means helpful.

NOTE - THIS DOES NOT MEAN THAT EVERYONE SHOULD GO OUT AND BUY THE GOOD COCONUT OIL!

The saying is appropriate “one man’s meat is another man’s potatoes!” You should be tested to see if Coconut Oil would be beneficial for you. The healthier you are, the more likely you will be able to benefit from this excellent oil.

The following research statistic on 30 people bears this out regarding the good SOLUTIONS 4 YOU® coconut oil: seventeen (17) or almost 2/3 of the people that try this oil can effectively utilize this type of oil.
